

Plastics and Packaging

| Times         | Name                                                                       | Topic                                                                                                                    |
|---------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10.00 - 10.15 | David Spratt - Head of Business Systems, Epson UK Ltd                      | Improving the efficiency of colour labelling                                                                             |
| 10.15 - 10.30 | Rod Fox - Managing Director, Revaluetech Ltd. U.K.                         | Plastic waste - a valuable resource to be nurtured                                                                       |
| 10.30 - 10.45 | Beth Simpson - UK Marketing Manager, Anthesis Group                        | The Plastics Challenge (or How Businesses Can Tackle The Plastics Challenge)                                             |
| 10.45 - 11.00 | Adam Hall - Head of Sustainability, Surfdomo                               | Influencing change, Marine plastic crisis                                                                                |
| 11.00- 11.15  | Coffee Break &amp; Networking                                       |                                                                                                                          |
| 11.15 - 11.30 | Dr Paul Shipton - Consultancy Director, Smithers Rapra & Smithers Pira Ltd | Improving confidence in your designs: Predicting the lifetime and durability of plastics in their operating environments |
| 11.30 - 11.45 | Duncan Simpson - Director of Sales and Marketing, Valpak Limited           | Supply chain insights – knowledge beyond compliance                                                                      |

Renewable Energy & Energy Efficiency

| Times         | Name                                                                  | Topic                                                                                                           |
|---------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 11.45 - 12.00 | David Taylor - Sales & Marketing Director, Bryt Energy Ltd            | Renewable Energy Suppliers & Consumers: the road ahead                                                          |
| 12.00 - 12.15 | Nadia Smith - Project Co-ordinator, cfric                             | Decentralised, Relocalised; Economic sustainability in the energy sector - an introduction to Community Energy. |
| 12.15 - 12.30 | Neil Budd - Partner, Shakespeare Martineau LLP                        | Minimum Energy Efficiency Standard (MEES) – legal implications for landlords of commercial buildings            |
| 12.30 - 12.45 | Stephen Crosher - CEO, Fleet Renewables                               | Innovating in hydro                                                                                             |
| 12.45 - 13.00 | Nausheen Basha - Research Assistant, Centre for Compressor Technology | Development of Energy Efficient Oil Flooded Twin Screw Compressors                                              |
| 1.00 - 1.45   | Lunch Break &amp; Networking                                   |                                                                                                                 |
| 1.45 - 2.00   | Sam Kerr - Process Engineer, Advanced Microwave Technologies          | Microwave technology for biomass Treatment                                                                      |

Sustainability

| Times       | Name                                                            | Topic                                                                                                                     |
|-------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2.00 - 2.15 | Graham Simmonds - Managing Director, Green Rewards              | Engaging your people in sustainability – how to create long-term engagement in environmental sustainability and wellbeing |
| 2.15 - 2.30 | Denise Brinton - Sales and Marketing Manager, Staysafe PPE Ltd  | 'Saving the Earth', Cost and environmental savings to be made by recycling your protective gloves and hi-viz for re-use   |
| 2.30 - 2.45 | Leah Waterhouse - Director, Specialist Sectors, Lombard         | Lombard, Specialist Sectors – A case study                                                                                |
| 2.45 - 3.00 | Anna Bright - Chief Executive, Sustainability West Midlands, UK | The Business Benefits of Sustainability                                                                                   |
| 3.00 - 3.15 | Coffee Break &amp; Networking                            |                                                                                                                           |

Water & Waste Water

| Times       | Name                                                                                    | Topic                                                                                               |
|-------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 3.15 - 3.30 | Amanda Cove - Field Sales Manager - Scientific, Process Water Veolia Water Technologies | Pure Water - The Essence of the Lab                                                                 |
| 3.30 - 3.45 | Ben Hazard - Process Engineer, Trant Engineering Ltd                                    | Advanced technologies and engineering design for a sustainable future – a contractor's perspective. |
| 3.45 - 4.00 | Nathan Walker - PhD Researcher,                                                         | The Water-Energy Nexus & Dwr Uisce                                                                  |

All presentations/timetables are subject to change. Please check with onsite event timetable on the day.